ARABIAN STAILION FOR SALE.—THE PUBE
A Arabian Horse SAID is for sale on reasonable terms as his present owner has no use for him. To breeders he will be a most valuable acquisition. The following pedigree gives the purify of his blood, with other interesting facts relating to his careot:—SAID (also spelled Sayed), as given by the groom of Nubar Pasha. His sire was Fasha, 1864, at the stables of Nubar Pasha. His sire was the fanous Khorassan, the property of Abdul Medjid. Side dam was Oblan, the property of Nubar Pasha, and is the descendant of the culcivated Jantzear, which leaped the citalet walls with the last Mameinke Hew when fleeing from Mahomed Ali [9] [5]. Therefore, Said is a cross between the Nedjid bread on the findher's side and the Anasseb breed on the side of the constaints.

This grand Arab stallion exhibited wonderful powers of enturance and speed in the Abvasinian war, being ridden constaintly by an officer during that camerain.
